Ohio Catawba Brandy

Not only equals but EXCELS the best Imported Brandies in purity and flavor. It is in fact the best BRANDY KNOWN. This statement is fully corroborated by the certificates of our most distinguished analytical chemists. The want of PURB BRANDY has long been felt in this country, and the introduction of an article of such quality as to supersede the sale and use of those vile compounds hitherto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be regarded a great public good. The CATAWBA BRANDY possesses all the good qualities claimed for the best Imported Liquors, and is of perfect purity and superior flavor, and a sovereign and sure remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Cramp, Colic, Languor, Low Spirits, General Debility, &c. DEAR PATRIDGE—The following letter from Maine is worth publishing because of the evidence or identity it affords, thus adding another to the heap already gathered in that respect.

The communication from Prof. Hare is literally ferred to that occasion, because matters then advanced were a frequent topic of conversation between us.

General Webb, in his remarks, took occasion to contrast my belief in revelation through Jesus of Nazareth and his diciples, with the Professor's unbelief in it, and I had watched with close

My first acquaintance with him arose out of his having sought an interview with me shortly after he had begun his investigations of Spiritualism.

He then told me how resolute an opponent to the prevailing religion of the day he had been all his life, denying all revelation, rejecting the Bible, and even going so far as to collate and publish offensive extracts from it, and questioning man's immortality and the existence of a God. DIAMPOLIS:

He then told me now resolute an opponent to the prevailing religion of the day he had been all his life, denying all revelation, rejecting the Bible, and even going so far as to collate and publish offensive extracts from 1t, and questioning man's immortality and the existence of a God. Therefore it was that I watched his progress with solicitude, to see if his unbelief would not yield to the truths of Spiritualism, as that of many, very many others of a similar state of mind had yielded. Scarcely two years elapsed before the Profes-

The Professor saw this letter as published, and spoke to me about these remarks. This was the last time I ever saw him, and he then told me that he was at length a full believer in Revela-tion, and in the Revelations through Jesus—that, in fine, he was now a Christian, full in the faith— that but a few days before he had made a public proclamation of this belief, at a meeting which he had addressed at Salem, Massachusetts, and true, not only as to his meeting at Saratoga and General Webb's speaking at it, but also as to the fact that the General's brother is my brother-in-It is natural that the Professor should have re-scrutiny the progress of the Professor in that My first acquaintance with him arose out of his sor showed me that my anticipations were correct, and his unbelief was yielding to the force of evidence. He first acknowledged a belief in his immortality, and said that had been demonstrated to mortality, and said that had been demonstrated to him by spiritual intercourse, in this wise: That the spirits who had spoken to him through different mediums, had so proved to him their identity with persons whom he had known on earth—and particularly his sister—that there was no poom to doubt it. He was slow and cautious in receiving that conviction, but when it was thus, by frequent

But there he stuck fast for a while, denying in my letter to "A distinguished legal gentle-man," written in December, 1856, and now pub-lished as Spiritual Tract No. 5, I used this lanhonest, sincere, but inveserate dispensiver in the Christian religion. Late in life Spiritualism comes to him, and in a short time works in his mind the conviction of the existence of a God and his own immortality. So far his Spirit teachers have already gone with him. But he still denies revelation."

he read to me a long article on that subject, which he had prepared for publication.

The article was very characteristic of the Professor. COPPER-SMITHING.

COPPER-SMITHING.

OTTRELL & KNIGHT are now prepared to take jobs of Copper work of any amount and with their experience in the Copper-Smithing business and a large and convenient shop, built expressly for their trade (an advantage enjoyed by very few copper smiths) and also having the best of machinery and tools, we feel justified in saying that there is no other shop in the Western country that can compete with us in workmanship. Distillers and Brewers are particularly invited to call and examine our work before they order, as we keep the best of workmen, it is unnecessary to go any farther than Indianapolis for copper work for Distilleries and Breweries. We are prepared to manufacture Still Worms, Still and Brew Kettles of any sise. We will duplicale Buffalo, Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis prices, and further, we will warrant all our work to be perfect in every particular or no pay. We are now permanently established in Indianapolis and we desire to do a business that will merit the confidence and patronage of the public.

We are also prepared to furnish Brass Work of any description and to do all kinds of Sheet Iron, Brass and Trn Work at the shortest notice. All orders for work respectively solicited. We keep on hand a large assortment of Lead Pipe, which we will sell at Cincinnati prices.

N. B.—We pay the highest price in cash for eld Copper Brass and Lead. Shop on Delaware street opposite Cenral Depot
